It's all about Eve

STEVE SPODEN PHOTO Lombardian

Last week, representatives of the Lombard Service League presented a philanthropic donation to the Lutheran Church Charities K-9 Comfort Dog Ministry at St. John's Lutheran Church. Eve, a Golden Retriever who started her ministry at the Lombard church in December of 2015, has given comfort and support wherever her ministry has called her—both locally and nationally. Pictured at the June 27 donation presentation are Eve and (left to right) Lombard Service League's Cindy Carnahan and Darlene Wingard, and Eve's handlers—Michele Arellano, Sue Leary and Vic Arellano. For more information about the comfort dog ministry, visit lutheranchurchcharities.org.

MICHELE ARELLANO PHOTO Lombardian

The other side of the lens

Usually it's Steve Spoden behind the lens, but on Tuesday, June 18, it was his turn to be in front of the camera. The Lombardian photographer was at St. John's Lutheran Church in Lombard to take a photo of the Lombard Service League presenting a check to Team Eve, for the care and maintenance of the Lutheran Church Charities comfort dog. Handler Michele Arellano said Eve is supported through contributions and donations. League member Darlene Wingard said the group chose Eve because the league "wanted to do something locally," and members have "a soft spot in our hearts" for the comfort work Eve does not just in Lombard but around the country, when she is deployed. Eve provides "comfort and support wherever her ministry has called her," Wingard commented. As for the photo, Arellano told the photographer that "I would love to have a photo of you with her. He was so modest." She said as of late last week, the photo on Eve's Facebook page had reached over 1,000 people and garnered well over 200 likes.
